

Date Protection Policy

Emmi takes data protection very seriously. Emmi complies with the requirements of the Swiss Data Protection Act and will process your data in accordance with the Data Protection Policy set out here.

By registering and releasing your profile on Emmi's career page, you declare your agreement with data processing pursuant to this Data Protection Policy, including the processing of any sensitive personal information.

Accuracy and nature of the data

You confirm that your information is accurate, complete and up to date and is not misleading. You may view and update your data at any time. You are aware that intentionally false or misleading statements or information which you provide in your application or during inter-views can lead to rejection of your application or, if you are already employed, consequences under labour law (including dismissal).

You are aware that your data may include particularly sensitive data (e.g. health information, criminal records, etc.) or personality profiles.

Purpose of data processing

Your data will be used for the following purposes: recruitment, statistics, human resource administration and management.

Disclosure of data

Emmi may pass your data on to other companies of the Emmi Group in Switzerland and ab-road to use for their own purposes (e.g. filling a position in a company of the Emmi Group abroad), provided that you have agreed to this.

Emmi may also commission third parties (e.g. service providers, recruitment agencies, etc.) in Switzerland and abroad to carry out data processing. Emmi will take all measures required to ensure appropriate protection of your data.

Notification, correction and deletion of your data

You can inspect your profile, correct the stored data or completely delete your profile at any time.

Data security

Emmi and its service providers do not guarantee that electronically transferred data will not be viewed by third parties or be lost, and they assume no liability in this regard.

Agreement

By accepting this agreement to Emmi's data protection guidelines, you confirm that you have read and understood this Data Protection Policy and that you consent to the processing of your data. Your agreement will be recorded.

We wish you the best of luck with your application.
